MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

FROM : Acting Chief, Plans &amp; Policy Staff

SUBJECT : TR(G) Weekly Summary Report

25X1A9A

1. The BIC(I) #13 ended last Friday. [ ] attended the closing ceremony and gave a first-rate talk to the students.

2. Daily intelligence briefings have been started in the BIC(I) #14. Each morning, at the beginning of a class period, one of the students gives a five minute talk on a subject of current intelligence interest which he has prepared from the daily press and from OGI and other intelligence materials. Recently, for example, presentations have been given on British Guiana, Trieste, the Phillipine elections, and Palestine.

3. Dr. Allan Evans of the Department of State and [ ] of OGB gave lectures in the BIC(I) during the past week.

4. Mr. Nelson Rockefeller will be the keynote speaker for the Twelfth Agency Orientation Course in November. The Chief, OB/D has discussed with Mr. Rockefeller many details in connection with his presentation, and it is believed that his enthusiasm augurs well for the success of the undertaking.

5. A Government-wide air-raid drill is scheduled for 5 November at 1000 to 1015 hours. The Twelfth Agency Orientation Course will be in session at this time, but Mr. John Lucas of the Office of Plant and Operations of the Department of Agriculture has confirmed that personnel in attendance at the Course may remain in the Agriculture Auditorium during the drill.

6. With the impending return of military officers who have been processed in the OCS program, the Chief of Administration, DD/F has been requested by the Chief, JOT/D, to make appropriate provision for placing these personnel on the Military T/O of their sponsoring offices, and for their eventual reinstatement in those offices at the end of their tour of military duty, in accordance with the agreement made when these personnel entered the OCS program
